

Speech and Language Therapy Pack

Blanks Levels of Questioning

Blank levels of questioning is a questioning framework to help develop children's understanding of questions. It begins at simple questions (e.g. what is this?) and moves to more difficult and complex questions (e.g. what will happen next?). Developing these skills help children's language skills and helps them with their understanding, prediction and problem-solving skills.

You will need:

1. A book of choice
2. List of questions (see page 2)

Task Steps:

1. Open a book and read it with the child (any book will be fine)
2. Either ask questions as you go along, or revisit the book once you've finished reading it
3. You can then use the questions below, starting at Level 1 and working upwards as time goes on

Blank Levels of Questions

Blank Level 1 – Naming

- Find another one like this (e.g. pointing to an apple)
- What is this? (e.g. pointing to an object)
- Show me a (e.g. Show me an apple)

Blank Level 2 – Describing

- What is ... doing (e.g. what is the boy doing?)
- Who is this? (e.g. pointing to a character in the book)
- Where are they?
- Show me something you ... (e.g. show me something you eat)

Blank Level 3 – Retelling

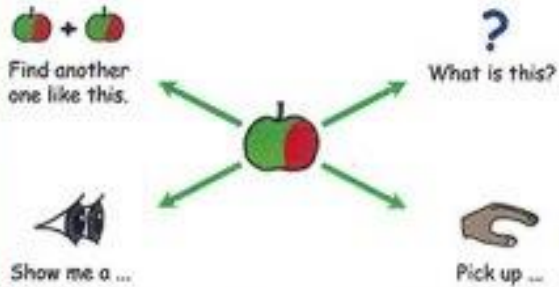

- What happened in the story?
- What did ... say?
- How did ... feel?
- What will happen next?

Level 4 – Justifying

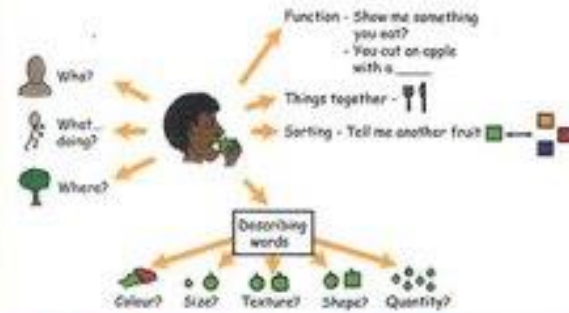

- How do you know that
- Solve a problem (e.g. what could you do if that happened to you?)
- Why did ... happen?

Blank - developing verbal reasoning skills

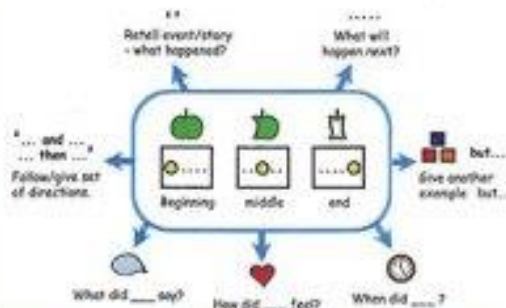

Blank Level 1 - Naming

Blank Level 2 - Describing

Blank Level 3 - Re-telling

Blank Level 4 - Justifying

