

Where's
Spot?40
Spot

Eric Hill

The original lift-the-flap book

WHERE'S SPOT?

by Eric Hill

It's dinner time, but Sally can't find her puppy Spot. Where can he be?

Lift each flap and see where cheeky Spot has been hiding.

Where's Spot? or Where's Teddy? - Play the story

Hide a cuddly toy for your child to find. You could try to hide the toy under, inside, behind... Babies who are crawling will enjoy this game but will need to see you hide the toy if they are going to be able to find it!

You could make your own characters using the link below. Hide them and then see how many you can find with your little one.

www.penguin.co.uk/articles/children/2017/create-your-very-own-outdoors-trail-to-find-spot/

Enjoy Books Anywhere at Anytime

Carry a book with you wherever you go - books are great for sharing when out and about, whether waiting for appointments, in the garden, or at a café. Make it a really special time for you and your child by switching off the television and radio and ignoring the mobile.

Spot Song

*Spot, Spot, lovable Spot,
He's soft and cuddly and he smiles a lot,
If there ever was a pup to cheer you up,
It's Spot, Spot, Spot.*

Listen and join in with the Spot Song on YouTube

www.youtube.com/watch?v=M-pDf52Etk0

Make a lift the flap book that your baby can look at with you.

Use photos of some familiar faces and talk to them about their family. This will help your baby to learn people's names and they will love hearing your voice and seeing the pictures.

You could use pictures of your pets too.

